

103D CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. J. RES. 52

To designate the month of November 1993 and 1994 as “National Hospice Month”.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 2 (legislative day, JANUARY 5), 1993

Mr. PACKWOOD (for himself, Mr. MOYNIHAN, Mr. DOLE, Mr. D’AMATO, Mr. BRADLEY, Mr. STEVENS, Mr. BOREN, and Mr. GLENN) introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

JOINT RESOLUTION

To designate the month of November 1993 and 1994 as “National Hospice Month”.

Whereas hospice care has been demonstrated to be a humanitarian way for terminally ill patients to approach the end of their lives in comfort with appropriate, competent, and compassionate care in an environment of personal individuality and dignity;

Whereas hospice advocates care for the patient and family by attending to their physical, emotional, and spiritual needs and, specifically, the pain and grief they experience;

Whereas hospice care is provided by an interdisciplinary team of physicians, nurses, social workers, pharmacists, psychological and spiritual counselors, and community volunteers trained in the hospice concept of care;

Whereas hospice is becoming a full partner in the Nation's health care system;

Whereas the enactment of a permanent medicare hospice benefit and an optional medicaid hospice benefit makes it possible for many more United States citizens to have the opportunity to elect to receive hospice care;

Whereas private insurance carriers and employers have recognized the value of hospice care by the inclusion of hospice benefits in health care coverage packages; and

Whereas there remains a great need to increase public awareness of the benefits of hospice care: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
 2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
 3 That the month of November in 1993 and 1994 is designated as "National Hospice Month". The President is
 4 authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling
 5 upon all government agencies, the health care community,
 6 appropriate private organizations, and people of the United
 7 States to observe such months with appropriate forums,
 8 programs, and activities designed to encourage national 9 recognition of and support for hospice care as a humane
 10 response to the needs of the terminally ill and as a viable
 11 component of the health care system in the Nation.
